MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

This Customer Agreement and Trading Authorization is made and entered into as of the date set forth at the end of this Agreement by and between Diamond Capital Management, (“Diamond”), and the undersigned customer(s). This agreement is entered into based upon the following representations:

The client represents the he/she has speculative capital for the principal purpose of investing in options on futures and futures contracts and has been informed and is fully cognizant of the possible high risks associated with such investments.

IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED THAT:

The client shall deposit the sum set forth at the end of this Agreement in a commodity trading account established and maintained with the futures commission merchant (“FCM”) named at the end of this Agreement.

The Advisor will trade options on futures and futures contracts and will have the exclusive authority to issue all necessary instructions to the Broker. All such transactions shall be for the account and risk of the Client.

The Advisor will seek capital appreciation in the Client’s Account by trading speculatively in options on futures and futures.

This Agreement shall remain in effect until terminated by the receipt of written notice of either party to the other. All such notices will become effective within 15 business days once acknowledged by the Advisor. The Advisor or Client may terminate this Agreement for any reason upon such notice. Upon termination of this Agreement, open positions held by an account will be closed as promptly as possible subsequent to the acknowledgment of the request.

The Advisor’s recommendations and authorizations shall be for the Account and risk of the Client. The Advisor makes no guarantee that any of its services will result in a profit to the Client. The Client has discussed the risks of futures trading with the FCM and understands those risks. The Client assumes the responsibility of losses that may be incurred.

The Client agrees to execute a “Limited Trading Authorization and Power of Attorney” with his/her FCM authorizing the Advisor to enter orders for Commodity Interests for the Client’s Account.

The Client recognizes that the Advisor will transmit orders on the Client’s behalf to the FCM but will not directly execute such orders. The Advisor shall not be responsible for any acts, omissions, or errors of the FCM or any other executing broker in executing such orders.

The Client acknowledges that the Advisor’s strategies and trades constitute proprietary data belonging to the Advisor and agrees that neither it nor any of its affiliates will disseminate any confidential information regarding any of the foregoing, except as required by law, and any such information as may be acquired by the Client or such affiliates is to be used solely to monitor the Advisor’s performance on behalf of the Client.

The Client agrees that any and all portfolio position reports, performance information and other confidential or proprietary information distributed to the Client by Diamond Capital Management must be held in confidence by the client and may not be disclosed to any third party or used by the Client or any third party to whom the Client discloses such information for any purpose other than to monitor the Client’s account with Diamond

The Client agrees to authorize payments from the Client's Account to the Advisor in compensation for services as set forth in this agreement.

The Client acknowledges that he has read a copy of the Advisor's most current Disclosure Document, including the Risk Disclosure Statement. The Advisor makes no guarantee that any of its services will result in a gain for the Client. The Advisor will not be liable to the Client or to others except by reason of acts constituting willful malfeasance or gross negligence as to its duties herein, and disclaims any liability for human or machine errors in orders to trade or not to trade Commodity Interests.

In the event that any provisions of this Agreement are invalid for any reason whatsoever, all other conditions and provisions of the Agreement shall, nevertheless, remain in full force and effect.

The Client will pay the Advisor as compensation for advisory services a quarterly management and a quarterly incentive fee mutually agreed upon and set forth at the end of this Agreement. The Advisor will bill all fees with the billing sent directly to the FCM to be paid out of the Client's account. The Advisor reserves the right to negotiate different fees for different clients and to share any portion of these fees with third parties in accordance with regulatory and industry standards. The quarterly management and quarterly incentive fees are calculated and defined as follows:

Quarterly Management Fees

Diamond Capital Management will charge a quarterly management fee. The management fee will be accrued monthly as a percentage of the Net Asset Value of the client's account at the end of each month. The management fee will be calculated prior to any incentive fee being subtracted from the account. If a client withdraws from the Program on a date other than at the end of a quarter, management fees will be calculated and billed as if such termination were the end of the month and pro-rated to the number of months actually traded in that quarter. Where an account is partially funded, the quarterly management fee shall be taken as a percentage of the account's nominal size, defined as the dollar amount that the Advisor and its clients have agreed in writing will determine the level of trading in an account regardless of the actual assets on deposit with the FCM.

Quarterly Incentive Fee

The quarterly incentive fee is taken as a percentage of New Net Trading Profits. New Net Trading Profits are computed using the formula: (1) gross realized profit and loss during the period plus (2) the change in net unrealized profit and loss on open positions as of the end of the period, minus (1) all brokerage commissions and transaction fees and charges paid or accrued during the period and (2) cumulative net loss, if any, carried over from other periods. The carryover of previous loss makes certain that incentive fees are paid only on the cumulative increases in the net gains of an account. It should be noted that the full loss is not carried over the next quarter in an instance where there has been a partial withdrawal of funds. In such a case, the portion of the loss attributable to the withdrawn amount is first subtracted from the carryover loss. In addition, if an account does not have New Net Trading Profits in a given quarter, no incentive fee will be due to the Advisor unless and until the account experiences New Net Trading Profits in a subsequent quarter. The amount of the incentive fee due to the Advisor, if any, will be determined independently with respect to each quarter, and the amount of any such fee paid will not be affected by subsequent losses experienced in a participating customer's account. Incentive Fees will be accrued monthly, subject to reversal in the event of trading losses prior to the end of a calendar quarter. In the event of a withdrawal other than as of a quarter-end, any accrued Incentive Fees with respect to such redeemed assets will be paid to Diamond as if such date of withdrawal were a quarter-end.

By depositing funds with the FCM, the Client acknowledges and accepts the propriety of the Advisor's trading program and his suitability to bear economic risk of loss in commodity trading in Commodity Interests.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the _____ day of _____, 201____.

In addition, I request that you trade my account with a degree of leverage that exceeds that recommended by you, and I am aware of the following:

O'Brien promptly on demand for any and all Losses arising therefrom or debit balance due thereon in the undersigned(s) account.

In all such purchases, sales or trades, R.J. O'Brien is authorized to follow the instruction of the Account Controller in every respect concerning the undersigned's account through R.J. O'Brien; the Account Controller is authorized to act for the undersigned and in the undersigned's behalf in the same manner and with the same force and effect as the undersigned might or could do with respect to such purchases, sales, or trades as well as with respect to all other things necessary or that would be incidental to the furtherance of conduct of such purchases, sales or trades.

The undersigned hereby ratifies and confirms any and all transactions with R.J. O'Brien heretofore made by the aforesaid Account Controller or for the undersigned account.

Duplicate statements will be made available to the Account Controller via R.J.O'Brien's client portal.

The authorizations and indemnities in this Managed Account Agreement – Power of Attorney are in addition to (and in no way limit or restrict) any rights which R.J. O'Brien may have under any other agreements or agreements between the undersigned and R.J. O'Brien. R.J. O'Brien shall not have any liability for following the instructions of the Account Controller, and the undersigned shall never attempt to hold R.J. O'Brien liable for the Account Controller's actions or inactions.

The undersigned represents that the Account Controller has provided a disclosure document to the undersigned concerning the Account Controller's trading advice, including any options trading advice and the strategies to be used by the Account Controller, which the undersigned has read and understood, or, in the alternative, the Account Controller has furnished the undersigned with a signed written statement explaining the Account Controller's exemption from applicable registration and disclosure document requirements of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission and National Futures Association.

This Managed Account Agreement - Power of Attorney does not revoke any powers of attorney previously executed by the undersigned unless the undersigned gives written notice of revocation to the Account Controller of any previously executed Power of Attorney.

The undersigned has read and understood the above and agrees to all terms and conditions therein.

MANAGED ACCOUNT AGREEMENT – POWER OF ATTORNEY

This document creates a Limited Power of Attorney between the undersigned as “Principal” and the Account Controller. If actually executed by the Principal within the State of New York, to be valid, Section 5-1501B of the General Obligations Law of the State of New York requires that the document be signed by both the Principal and Account Controller and that the document contain the following notices to the Principal and the Account Controller. (The text of the following notices to the Principal and Account Controller is prescribed by law and must be recited verbatim to the statute even though some portions are not applicable to Powers of Attorney given by individuals to their brokers or investment managers.)

CAUTION TO THE CLIENT/PRINCIPAL(S)

Your Power of Attorney is an important document. As the “Principal,” you give the person whom you choose (your “Account Controller”) authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your property during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your authority to act even though you have given your account controller similar authority.

When your Account Controller exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific instructions, in your best interest. “Important Information for the Account Controller” at the end of this document describes your Account Controller’s responsibilities.

You can request information from your Account Controller at any time. If you are revoking a prior Power of Attorney by executing this Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of the revocation to your prior Account Controller(s) and to the financial institutions where your accounts are located. You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound mind, a court can remove an Account Controller for acting improperly. Your Account Controller cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute a “Health Care Proxy” to do this. The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly websites, www.senate.state.ny.us or www.assembly.state.ny.us.

If there is anything about this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer of your own choosing to explain it to you.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE ACCOUNT CONTROLLER

When you accept the authority granted under this Power of Attorney, a special legal relationship is created between you and the Principal. This relationship imposes on you legal responsibilities that continue until you resign or the Power of Attorney is terminated or revoked. You must:

- (1) Act according to any instructions from the Principal, or, where there are no instructions, in the Principal’s best interest;
- (2) Avoid conflicts that would impair your ability to act in the Principal’s best interest;
- (3) Keep the Principal’s property separate and distinct from any assets you own or control, unless otherwise permitted by law;
- (4) Keep a record of all receipts, payments, and transactions conducted for the Principal; and
- (5) Disclose your identity as an Account Controller whenever you act for the Principal by writing or printing the Principal’s name and signing your own name as “Account Controller” in either of the following manner: (Principal’s Name) by (Your Signature) as Account Controller, or (Your Signature) as Account Controller for (Principal’s Name).

You may not use the Principal’s assets to benefit yourself or give major gifts to yourself or anyone else unless the Principal has specifically granted you that authority in this Power of Attorney or in a Statutory Major Gifts Rider attached to this Power of Attorney. If you have that authority, you must act according to any instructions of the Principal or, where there are no such instructions, in the Principal’s best interest.
