§4. Advisory Relationship

- 4.1 Relationship- Client hereby appoints Typhon as a commodity trading advisor to engage in Trading Activities on behalf of Client in such geographic regions as Client determines, and Typhon hereby agrees to accept such appointment, all on the terms and conditions set out below.
- 4.2 Establishment of Managed Account- Client shall establish a Managed Account with _____ (“Clearing Broker”) being mutually acceptable to both the Client and Typhon, funds and/or securities sufficient enough to be able to trade a nominal account size of US$ _____, the initial Net Asset Value on which Typhon shall engage in Trading Activities.
- 4.3 Terms of Managed Account- The Managed Account shall be established with Clearing Broker by Client privately and separately from all other clients that Typhon may advise. Typhon shall have power of attorney over the Managed Account with sole discretion with regards to executing Trading Activities. Typhon shall not have any additional authority to withdraw, transfer, or transact funds in the Managed Account. Client, at its sole discretion, may allocate capital to the Managed Account, and add to, redeem, or withdraw from the Managed Account, at any time, such capital as it determines in its sole discretion so long as the Managed Account’s equity remains above Typhon’s minimum required US$ 250,000 in notional funds. Client agrees to notify Typhon in writing 3 business days in advance of such additions and/or withdrawals. Client will immediately inform Typhon if at any time it becomes dissatisfied with Typhon's handling of the Account.
- 4.4 Clearing Brokerage Details- Client authorizes Clearing Broker to furnish copies of all confirmations and periodic account statements to Typhon. Client agrees that the relationship between Clearing Broker and Client is not, and shall not, become the responsibility of Typhon. Typhon is not liable for the executions or settlement of transactions (once the orders have been placed by Typhon). Client further acknowledges that Clearing Broker is solely responsible for the transmission of trade confirmations and monthly account statements as well as custody over the Client’s assets held in the Managed Account. Client will execute any and all documents required by the FCM, Typhon, and/or any regulatory agency having or claiming to have jurisdiction over the FCM, Typhon or the Managed Account necessary to open and maintain the Managed Account and to provide Typhon the authority to trade and manage the Managed Account.
- 4.5 Authorization of Give-Up Orders- Client authorizes Typhon to execute orders on behalf of the Managed Account on a give-up basis and issues Typhon the authority to designate the FCM or Floor Broker who will act as Executing Broker for trades entered on behalf of the Managed Account. The Executing Broker will “give up” the orders to the Clearing Broker for Client’s Managed Account and risk. The Clearing Broker will act as the carrying broker and will carry these positions. Client understands that the Executing Broker will charge fees for the give-up orders to the Clearing Broker. Client agrees to reimburse the Executing Broker from the Managed Account held at the Clearing Broker. Client authorizes Typhon to enter into all arrangements on behalf of Client that are necessary and appropriate (in Typhon’s sole discretion) to set up and maintain give-up arrangements on Client’s behalf. Client authorizes Typhon to negotiate any such give-up arrangement for a fee of up to $2 per half-turn.

4.6 Authorization for Clearing Broker to Pay Advisor- Client hereby authorizes Clearing Broker to deduct and remit directly to Typhon such Management Fees, Incentive Fees, or other fees, together “Fees” as Typhon requests on a monthly basis. Typhon will inform Clearing Broker of the exact amounts due on the agreed upon payment dates. Client acknowledges and agrees that Typhon is solely responsible for the computation of Fees and authorizes Typhon to rely on remittance instructions submitted by Typhon completely without regard to amount. This authorization will continue in effect until Clearing Broker receives written notice from the Client terminating it. Such notice will be mailed or delivered to Typhon and to the account executive handling this account. Client agrees to execute a separate document authorizing this paragraph if the Clearing Broker requests such.

4.7 Summary of Trading Activities- Typhon will trade Investments, and will have the exclusive authority to issue all necessary instructions to the Clearing Broker. All such transactions shall be for the account and risk of Client. Typhon will seek capital appreciation in Client's account by trading speculatively in the above delineated Investments utilizing the proprietary Strategy as described in the D-Doc.

4.8 Inherent Risks and Limitation of Typhon’s Liability- Typhon's recommendations and authorizations shall be for the Managed Account and risk of Client. Client understands there are substantial risks inherent in futures and options trading. Client assumes the responsibility of losses that may be incurred, including an obligation to restore any debit balances with the Clearing Broker. Typhon makes no guarantee that any of its services will result in a profit or will not result in a loss for Client. Typhon will not be liable to Client or to others except by reason of acts constituting willful malfeasance or gross negligence as to its duties herein, and disclaims any liability for human and machine errors in orders to trade or not to trade the Strategy. Typhon shall use its best judgment and efforts in managing the Managing Account. Client warrants it has sufficient risk capital to tolerate losing more than the entire amount (notional or actual funds) committed to the Strategy without experiencing a material change in current activities or future plans.

- 4.9 Disclosure Document- Typhon shall provide to Client a D-Doc disclosing all material information relevant to Typhon's ability to perform its duties under this Agreement. To the best of Typhon's knowledge, the information provided to Client will be accurate, and Typhon further promises to inform Client of any material change to such information. - 4.13 No Pending Legal Action- Typhon represents and warrants that there is not pending or, to the best of Typhon's knowledge, threatened, any action, suit or proceeding before or by any court or other governmental body to which Typhon is a party, or to which any of the assets of Typhon is subject, which might reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect Typhon's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement. Typhon shall immediately notify Client of the nature and amount of any claim which could reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect Typhon's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement upon receipt by Typhon of notice of any such action, suit, proceeding, investigation, or other inquiry as described herein during the term of this Agreement.

MANAGED ACCOUNT AGREEMENT – POWER OF ATTORNEY

This document creates a Limited Power of Attorney between the undersigned as “Principal” and the Agent. If actually executed by the Principal within the State of New York, to be valid, Section 5-1501B of the General Obligations Law of the State of New York requires that the document be signed by both the Principal and Agent and that the document contain the following notices to the Principal and the Agent. (The text of the following notices to the Principal and Agent is prescribed by law and must be recited verbatim to the statute even though some portions are not applicable to Powers of Attorney given by individuals to their brokers or investment managers.)

CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL/CUSTOMER (S)

Your Power of Attorney is an important document. As the “Principal,” you give the person whom you choose (your “Agent”) authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your property during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authority.

When your Agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific instructions, in your best interest. “Important Information for the Agent” at the end of this document describes your Agent’s responsibilities.

You can request information from your Agent at any time. If you are revoking a prior Power of Attorney by executing this Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of the revocation to your prior Agent(s) and to the financial institutions where your accounts are located. You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound mind, a court can remove an Agent for acting improperly. Your Agent cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute a “Health Care Proxy” to do this. The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly websites, www.senate.state.ny.us or www.assembly.state.ny.us.

If there is anything about this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer of your own choosing to explain it to you.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE AGENT

When you accept the authority granted under this Power of Attorney, a special legal relationship is created between you and the Principal. This relationship imposes on you legal responsibilities that continue until you resign or the Power of Attorney is terminated or revoked. You must:

- (1) Act according to any instructions from the Principal, or, where there are no instructions, in the Principal’s best interest;
- (2) Avoid conflicts that would impair your ability to act in the Principal’s best interest;
- (3) Keep the Principal’s property separate and distinct from any assets you own or control, unless otherwise permitted by law;
- (4) Keep a record of all receipts, payments, and transactions conducted for the Principal; and
- (5) Disclose your identity as an Agent whenever you act for the Principal by writing or printing the Principal’s name and signing your own name as “Agent” in either of the following manner: (Principal’s Name) by (Your Signature) as Agent, or (Your Signature) as Agent for (Principal’s Name).

You may not use the Principal’s assets to benefit yourself or give major gifts to yourself or anyone else unless the Principal has specifically granted you that authority in this Power of Attorney or in a Statutory Major Gifts Rider attached to this Power of Attorney. If you have that authority, you must act according to any instructions of the Principal or, where there are no such instructions, in the Principal’s best interest.
